

Local United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter Donates 26 Books On Civil War History To York County Public Library

Yorktown, Aug. 30 – The Peninsula Campaign Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy has donated 26 books to the York County Public Library, all on the topic of the Civil War and life during that era. Joining Library Director Lucinda Munger (second from left) for the donation are, from left: Ann Elksnia, historian; Nancy Beaton, member, and Barbara Pitts, chapter president. In the second photo, the group inspects one of the children's books in the collection, “Cassie’s Sweet Berry Pie,” by Karen B. Winnick.

